

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for beer using the book, A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Beer	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact BEER played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for wine using the book, A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Wine	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact wine played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for spirits using the book, A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Spirits	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact spirits played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for coffee using the book, A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Coffee	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact coffee played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for tea using the book, A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Tea	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact tea played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for Coca-Cola using the book A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Coca-Cola	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact Coca-Cola played in civilizations?

The AP World History course is designed around 5 major themes that consistently occur in each Period we will be studying. You will identify at least three examples that fit each theme for Water using the book A History of the World in Six Glasses.

Water	Theme 1: Interaction between humans and the environment	Theme 2: Development and interactions of cultures	Theme 3: State-building, expansion and conflict	Theme 4: Creation, expansion, and interaction of economic systems	Theme 5: Development and transformation of social structures
Example 1
Example 2
Example 3
How does identifying the themes aid in your overall understanding of the impact Water played in civilizations?					